

2014

M.A.

1st Semester Examination

HISTORY

PAPER—HIS-104

Full Marks : 50

Time : 2 Hours

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate full marks.

Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Answer all questions.

Group—A

- 1. Would you consider 'Revolution' a valid category to comprehend the process of industrialization in England?

10

Or

Why did the Industrial Revolution first take place in England?

10

- 2. Describe the new techniques of production and changes in the system of land holding that played an important role in bringing about the English agricultural revolution.

10

(Turn Over)

Or

What is meant by Demographic Revolution ? What is its importance in Industrial Revolution ? 10

Group—B

3. How far was the doctrine of laissez faire successfully practiced during the course of Industrial Revolution in England ? 10

Or

Discuss the growth of cotton industry during the Industrial Revolution. What were the difficulties faced by the industry ? 10

4. With reference to medical history would you argue that changes in mortality and fertility of the working class reflected their standard of living during the early industrialization of England. 10

Or

Would you say that childhood was virtually lost in the working class families of England during early industrialization. 10

[Internal Assessment : 10 Marks]
