

Acknowledgement

It is a great moment of sharing my satisfaction and pleasure to thank all of those who have immensely helped me to carry out research work. I would like to acknowledge all of them for their constant support and guidance to accomplish this journey of my research. At first, I would like to convey my deepest regards to my research supervisors Dr. Somenath Roy, Ex-Professor, Department of Human Physiology, Vidyasagar University and Dr. Sankar Kumar Dey, Assistant Professor, Department of Physiology, Santal Bidroha Sardha Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya for their excellent guidance, constant advices, overwhelming support, encouragement and constructive criticism throughout my research work and preparation of dissertation.

Sir, your way of thinking and impressive work ethics are unmatched and your efforts to bring perfection in anything you do are really wonderful. Your endless inspiration helped me a lot in gaining maximum knowledge, skill and experience in research activities. It has been really a great privilege to work under your supervision. I again express my sincere gratitude from core of my heart to both of you for giving me the opportunity to work under you for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Science) in Human Physiology.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor Ranjan Chakrabarti, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Vidyasagar University, Paschim Medinipur, West Bengal for giving me the scope and facilities to work for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Science.

I am grateful to Dr. Jayanta Kishore Nandi, Registrar, Vidyasagar University, for giving me the scope to avail the University facilities for research work.

I pay my sincere respect and gratitude to Dr. Subrata Kumar De, Dean (Faculty of Science) and Dr. Sibaji Pratim Basu, Dean (Faculty of Arts) for their constant help and guidance.

I owe my gratitude to the whole Department of Human Physiology for providing me a congenial work environment. I am grateful to Prof. (Dr) Prakash Chandra Dhara, Prof. (Dr) Sujata Maiti (Choudhury), Prof. (Dr) Chandradipa Ghosh, Dr. Sandeep Kumar Sinha and Dr. Sumana Sharkhel for giving me the opportunity to pursue my research works in the Department of Human Physiology, Vidyasagar University. I express my heartiest thanks to all of you, Sir and Madam, for constant help and support throughout my Ph.D. tenure.

I convey my sincere regards to Prof. (Dr) Indranil Acharya, department of English, Vidyasagar University for guiding me in every possible way to write the manuscript of the thesis. I express my heartiest thanks to him.

I am deeply indebted to my friend, Dr. Mahitosh Mandal, Professor, School of Medical Science and Technology, Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur for his guidance, co-operation and moral support.

This work would not have taken this shape without the help of all the technical and support staff at Vidyasagar University. I thank staffs at Academic section, Computer section, Repository, Stores and Admin section. I specially thank to Dr. Amal Kumar Bhunia, Deputy Registrar, Mr. Sushanta Ghorai, Ph.D. section, Mr. Jhareswar Chalak, Dean Office, Vidyasagar University for their co-operation and support. I pay my sincere thanks to Mr Anup Barman, Mr. Moloy Nayak, Mr. Sabyasachi Bera, Dept. of Physiology for giving me constant support and encouragement.

I greatly acknowledge the help provided by all the staffs of Electrical section, Substation and other staffs of Vidyasagar University for their help and services in some or other way.

I am pleased to pay my thanks to all the research scholars of this Department for their assistance and ensuring a wonderful working atmosphere in the laboratory.

I tender my obeisance to my parents and special thanks to my family members in this pleasant moment.

At last, but not the least, I bow down to the great Almighty for his blessings that always showered upon me and giving me patience, strength and all those nice people in my life.
