The completion of this thesis owes much to various sources of help, which I have received during the course of my study. I owe a great sense to gratitude to my Supervisor and Guide Smt. Smita Sett, Associate Professor, Department of Library & Information Science, Vidyasagar University. Valuable suggestion and guidance provided by her from time to time to encourage me a lot and made this thesis a perfect and useful work.

This dissertation really could not be completed without the help of various persons. So I thank the District Magistrate Office, Haldia Development Authority (HDA), Digha Sankarpur Development Authority (DSDA), Purba Medidinipur. They gave valuable information about my study area. I am grateful and thankful to the tourists whom I approached for my research and who gave their personal information their opinion in this regard. They allowed me to interact and cooperate with me to collect data which are more recourse full in connection of my Ph. D. work.

I extended my thanks Dr. Durga Sankar Rath, Dr. Pijus Kanti Jana and other teachers, Department of Library and Information Science, Vidyasagar University. I also grateful to late Professor Juran Krishna Sarkhel who gave me suggestions and helped me to choose this topic. I thank to the authority of Central Library, Vidyasagar University; Central Library, Calcutta University; Librarian, Ramnagar College for allowing me to use of their library. I am thankful to my Previous work place Gobindachak Sri Durga High School's Headmaster Mr. Prasenjt Kar and teachers namely Mr. Subhendu Kumar Bera, Mr. Biswajit Das, Mr. Puspen Karmakar, Mr. Sristidhar Barik, Mr. Sibdas Majhi and others also. They inspired me to conducting this work. I am thankful to Principal, Dr.

Amit Kr. De, Prabhat Kumar College Contai; my library staffs; my colleagues-Assistant Professor Dr. Chandan Mandal, Dr. Amit Kr. Bera, Mr. Amalesh Paikara, Dr. Pijus Samanta and others who helped me in any manner in completion of this thesis eventually.

My family has always provided inspiration. I extend my thanks to my elder brother Dr. Jaydeb Bera, my mother, my wife and my daughter for their inspiration, patience and sacrifices for the completion of my thesis. I frankly acknowledge that the short coming, if any crept in my work may be due to the usual limitations of an individual researcher.
